The General Mood of Those of Us Invading DC Tonight is "PISSSED OFF!" - Report from The Front

Just one hotel area close to DC. People are here from EVERYWHERE, and they are still coming. Just Tonight, I have spoken to people from PA, GA, FL, NC, AL, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Arizona, and Wyoming.

We are all here for the same reason, we have all realized that the Republic thrives tomorrow, or the Republic ends tomorrow. Hearing hundreds of people in the hotel bar chanting, "Fight For Trump" in unison was incredibly uplifting. I pity any antifa fags that try to attack this crowd, they are spoiling for a fight.

The hotels and local restaurants were obviously not prepared for this influx and did not expect it. The owner of the bar I had dinner in tonight said tonight was the first profitable night in months.

I don't think that it had dawned on the DC Swamp how big this was going to be until yesterday or today. The local news was warning about the "unexpectedly large and potentially violent" crowd descending on DC in the morning, warning people to "stay away from Downtown."

4 ▼ how many people do you think in your opinion that you have seen. I know it is late. People just arriving, in hotels etc. Trying to get an idea

Also stay safe and please keep reporting/updating for us who are unable to be there.
